TUESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 1, 1878.

SAD CASE .- Dr. Tuerck, of Cincinnati, has at last met his death at Memphis. He is the one who volunteered to go there, hoping that he might die because his wife, whom he ton derly loved, was an incurable invalid, and whose death was expected at any mement. She died soon after his departure, and the doctor, who worked so faithfully among the sufferers in

The Boston Traveller says that very bad Concord small boys yell: "Whoa, Emerson!" and then they jump the back fence and like lightning for fear somebody should kill them, and then be triumphantly acquitted by an æsthetic and screowful jury.

It was thought to be a big thing in ancient times when Ajax threw off his uister and defied the lightning, but now almost any man raises thunder if his dinner is cold, and the poets never say a word about it. - Burlington Hawk

In the make up of the modern small boy there is altogether too much whistle for the amount of boy. It is most too much like using a two quart funnel in a three outes vial .-Bridgeport Standard.

AN ENTIRE Success .- The greatest display in dress goods you ever, at any one time, saw will be found at Isane Eichberg's. This house has just completed its fall purchases, and will have a grand opening of its new stock on Monday morning, Sept. 30 b. consisting of a l ine latest novelies in Sicks. Velvets, Satics. BOOTS AND SHOES.

W.B. WADDEY

110 KING STREET, ALEXANDRIA, VA.,

Is now receiving his Fall and Winter stock of

BOOTS AND SHOES

And is happy to state that he is now prepared to show the finest line of Boots and Shoes, of all grades, that has ever been exhibited in this city. A great variety of new styles, very many being private patterns, of which he has the exclusive sale in this market.

SPECIAL INDUCEMENTS

Will be cilered in every kind of goods in his line.

He has just added to his stock of fine goods a large line of medium priced substantially made Boots and Snors, which he is offering at prices to suit the times. It is certainly the best assort ment he has been able to show, and they are to be sold at lower prices than ever. He cordially and confidently invites criticism, and an examination and inspection of his stock, feeling assured that his customers will be convinced that it is his aim to give the best goods at the lowest prices. He has a large and varied assortment of HEAVY BOOTS and SHOES, suitable for farmers and planters, to which he invites the particular attention of Country Merchants, being satisfied that he can sell them cheaper than they can be bought this side of New England. Don't buy a dollar's worth of goods in our line until you investigate his stock.
